Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species I, the embodiment wherein the criteria for the controller to adjust the operation of the photolab and the job order in queue among plurality of output device is based on operational efficiency of each output device;

Species II, the embodiment wherein the criteria for the controller to adjust the operation of the photolab and job order in queue among plurality of output device is based on shipping information with respect to the job order in queue;

Species III, the embodiment wherein the criteria for the controller to adjust the operation of the photolab and job order in queue among plurality of output device is based on number of job orders in queue for one or more of the plurality of different output device;

Species IV, the embodiment wherein the criteria for the controller to adjust the operation of the photolab and job order in queue among plurality of output device is based on time to complete one or more of the plurality of different job orders in queue for any one of the output device;

Species V, the embodiment wherein the criteria for the controller to adjust the operation of the photolab is by accelerating the process of the image prep device.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, none of the claims appears to be generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Khoi H Tran whose telephone number is (703) 308-1113. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday.
